

Children in Need of Hope

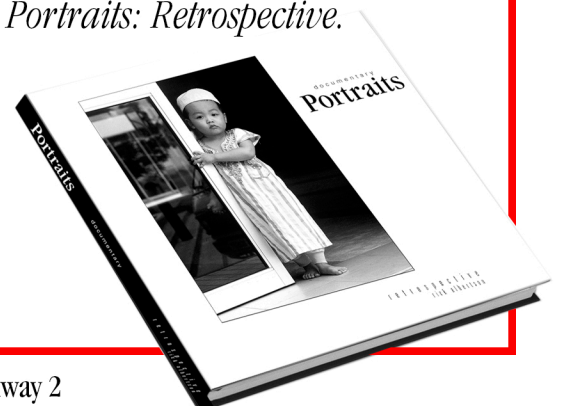

Wrightwood Arts

presents

an exhibition of documentary portraits by freelance documentary photographer and Wrightwood resident, Rick Albertson, at the Wrightwood Community Center. The black & white photographs of children needing hope were taken on assignments for major non-profit organizations in Asia, Africa, Central and North America. Each photo will be accompanied by a description providing the often heart-rending stories of the children pictured. Rick's new book will be available—Documentary Portraits: Retrospective.

May 23–August 20, 2019

Opening Reception: May 26th, 2:00 pm
